ORAL ORDER

1. All these applications are filed by the Municipal Corporation for condonation of delay of 37 days. The applications are strongly opposed by the respondents. According to the counsel for the respondents, the delay is not satisfactorily explained. It is difficult to accept this contention. The delay has been satisfactorily explained and, even otherwise looking to the issue involved in the matter of public interest i.e. taxation, the delay is condoned in all the applications. All the civil applications are disposed of. Put up all the appeals for admission on 28.11.2005.
